

HOW KIND ARE YOUR WAYS

Flute

Original Lyrics by John Kent, 1803.
Adaptation and music by Gary Brumley.

$\text{♩} = 90$

3

- | | | | | | | |
|----------|-------------|--------------|--------------------------|---------|--------------------|-------|
| 1. O | gra - cious | God! | How mer - ci - ful | Are all | Your ways | to |
| 2. (How) | pre - cious | are | Your thoughts, | O God, | Too nu - mer - ous | to |
| 3. (O) | God of | Heav'n, | Your ma - jes - ty | Is high | a - bove | the |
| 4. (Pre) | - served | in Je - sus, | when my soul | And | feet made | haste |
| 5. (A) | tro - phy | of | Your gra - cious - ness, | This | sin - ner | saved |
| | | | | | by | |

12

me,	Whose	sin - ful,	dark - ened,	re - bel	mind	Was	en - mi - ty	with know	They	fill	and flood	fee - ble	heart,	And	cap - ti - vate	my earth.	The	skies	pro - claim	with	end - less	Your	glo - ry,	power
hell;	And	there	should I	have	just - ly	gone,	But	You blood:	The	streams	of love	my	soul can	trace	Up	to the Foun - tain,