

HOW KIND ARE YOUR WAYS

Vocal

Original Lyrics by John Kent, 1803.
Adaptation and music by Gary Brumley.

♩ = 90

1. O gra - cious God! How mer - ci - ful Are
2. (How) pre - cious are Your thoughts, O God, Too
3. (O) God of Heav'n, Your ma - jes - ty Is 4. (Pre) - served in Je - sus, when my soul And 5. (A) tro - phy of Your gra - cious - ness, This all Your ways to me, Whose sin - ful, dark - ened, re - bel mind Was nu - mer - ous to know They fill and flood my fee - ble heart, And high a - bove the earth. The skies pro - claim with end - less speech Your feet made haste to hell; And there should I have just - ly gone, But sin - ner saved by blood: The streams of love my soul can trace Up en - mi - ty with Thee; Yet now, sub - dued by sov - ereign grace, My cap - ti - vate my soul; How great their sum, how high they rise, Can - glo - ry, power and worth; Lord, what is man, this wretch - ed foe, That You do all things well; Your love was great, Your mer - cy gone, free, And to the Foun - tain, God; And in Your ho - ly heart I see E -